Our Vision

At Smelt, we believe in the power of diversity, equity and inclusion to serve our clients directly and to help patient access to treatment indirectly.

At our core, we believe that by leveraging the varied backgrounds of the talents we work with and present to our valued customers and by driving ethical, transparent and value-adding strategies and processes to diversity, equity and inclusion, including in our recruitment and development processes, we can better deliver a future-fit workforce and indirectly access to treatment.

Smelt's values of integrity, excellence and respect for people foster an environment where our relations and employees are encouraged to speak up, share ideas and be fully engaged, while bringing their authentic selves to work every day. We strive to create a culture where everyone feels welcomed, respected, valued and heard.

We believe that with an inclusive vision, Smelt can contribute to innovation, acceleration and delivering life-changing treatments.

Cooperation with clients and partners

Smelt prefers to cooperate with organisations that share its social and environmental values. Smelt represents and warrants that it will comply with all applicable laws and regulations including, but not limited to, those relating to health, safety, environment, fair employment and discrimination. Smelt has an anti-corruption and anti-bribery policy which is available at your first request.
